

FEMME COMP INCORPORATED

C4 and Information Technologies

Ms. Courtney Fairchild
President
1401 14th Street, N.W. – 3rd Floor
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Ms. Fairchild:

As you know, owning and operating a small business can be more than a terrific challenge as you struggle to manage your day-to-day operations while keeping an eye open for growth potential. While I had set my sights on a GSA contract, I wasn't sure that my schedule was going to allow for its pursuit. This is where Global Services came in.

Knowing that I could rely on another small business that understood my resources and time constraints, I was able to maintain the balance of running my business and benefit from the growth of a new federal contract vehicle. Your staff made every effort to not only understand my business, but the industry as a whole in the context of GSA. A personal touch mixed with professionalism is the hallmark of every quality small business and Global Services is no exception. You should be very proud.

Thank you again and please feel free to use me as a personal reference. I am always happy to add to the growth of a small business that added to mine.

Sincerely,

Maureen P. Wilcox
President